

Directors are asked to view their performances from the designated area of the South stands. We ask that all directors and staff please respect the judging area and remain in their designated zones. We also ask that video / photo staff from your school be limited to one "official" individual who may film from the designated area of the stands during their school's band only.